WORKSHOP ON THE BRAIN-INJURED ADULT OFFERED IN MISSOULA

MISSOULA--

A workshop on a multidisciplinary approach to assist the brain-injured adult will be presented in Missoula from 8 a.m. to 8:15 p.m., Friday, April 2. The workshop will be held in Kennedy Hall, St. Patrick Hospital, 525 West Pine, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., and will continue at the Village Red Lion Motor Inn, 100 Madison, from 5 to 8:15 p.m.

Registration fee for the program is $40 and includes dinner, breaks and workshop materials. There is an additional fee of $4 for those who register at the door.

The goal of the workshop is to coordinate the health-care activities of health professionals and families of the brain-injured adult from admission to the emergency room to the achievement of maximum potential. The program is of particular interest to nurses, nursing home administrators, physical therapists, social workers, licensed practical nurses, home health agency personnel, rehabilitation counselors, physicians and consumers.

Participants may receive eight hours of continuing education credit from professional organizations.

The workshop is sponsored by the University of Montana Center for Continuing Education and Summer Programs, the UM Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders, St. Patrick Hospital, Missoula Community Medical Center, and the Western Montana Health Education Council.

Enrollment is limited to 85 participants. For more information or a registration form, call the UM Center for Continuing Education at 243-6486, Missoula.
